

CHRISTIAN BARBOSA

TRIADPS is a reference and the largest consultancy focused exclusively on the topic of productivity and high performance in the country.

Our solutions in content, training, consulting, software and online programs, are the results of research, investments and innovation of various concepts established decades ago.

We bring a portfolio of unique, measurable solutions focused on increasing team productivity, improve the level of focus, planning and execution. THE methodology, Tríade do Tempo, has already trained millions of people around the world, with real gains in time and performance.

ANNIE MARIE BITTENCOURT

A businesswoman, believes that the result is delivery with the delivery of excellence.

Major brands, portfolio part of its companies (Aloha of America and On stage Academy). The different cultures have made its customers, partners, and today, count on its experience to develop friends and events, enter a "One-stop Shop for all your needs. With many stories to tell, Annie understands what it's like to start a Start-Up and manage to survive in another country for 17 years.

